Failure to cross such a picket line or to perform the work of striking or locked-out Employees or to handle goods from an Employer where a strike or lockout is in effect by a member of this Union shall not be considered a violation of this Agreement, nor shall it be grounds for disciplinary action, or loss of wages for the period involved.
- 16.6.2 Picketing of a Constituency Office. In the case of a picket line at a Constituency Office, the Employee shall contact their representative to determine the status of the picket line. A legal strike line shall be respected as per Article 16.6.1. - 16.7 Political Action. - 16.8.2 A Union Representative shall have the right to consult with a Union Officer or Representative and to have him/her present at any discussion with the Employer which might be the basis of disciplinary action.

Within five (5) days thereafter, the other party shall answer by registered mail indicating the name and address of its appointee to the Arbitration Board. The two appointees shall select an impartial chairperson.
- 18.3 Failure to Appoint. If the party receiving the notice fails to appoint an Arbitrator, or if the two (2) appointees fail to agree upon a chairperson within seven (7) days of their appointment, the appointment shall be made by the President of the New Democratic Party of Saskatchewan.
- 18.4 Procedure
- 18.4.1 In resolving disputes, the Arbitrator shall have regard to the real substance of the matters in dispute and the respective merits of the positions of the parties, and shall apply principles consistent with the Trade Union Act and not be bound by a strict legal interpretation of the issue in dispute.
- 18.4.2 The Arbitrator shall have the power to receive and accept evidence and information on oath, affidavit, or otherwise as in its discretion it considers proper, whether or not the evidence is admissible in a court of law.
- 18.4.3 A grievance or arbitration shall not be deemed invalid by reason of a defect in form, a technical irregularity, or an error of procedure, if it results in a denial of natural justice. An Arbitrator may relieve against those defects, irregularities or errors of procedure on just and reasonable terms.
- 18.5 Decision of the Arbitrator. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final, binding and enforceable on all parties, and may not be changed. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions or make any decision contrary to the provisions of this Agreement. However, the Arbitrator shall have the power to amend a grievance, modify penalties or dispose of a grievance by any arrangement which it deems just and equitable.
- 18.6 Disagreement on Decision. Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the Arbitrator's decision, either party may apply to the Arbitrator to reconvene to clarify the decision.
- 18.7 Expenses of the Arbitrator. Each party shall pay one-half (½) of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.

- 22.5.2 Where the higher position is outside the bargaining unit the Employee shall receive the rate of pay for the position filled but in any event the increase shall not be less than ten (10) percent; however, at no time shall the increase be greater than the salary of the person replaced.
- 22.5.3 The Employee shall be deemed to be covered by all provisions of this Collective Agreement, including check-off of Union dues, during the period of temporary transfer.
- 22.5.4 Temporary Performance of Higher Duty will be offered to Employees based on seniority, subject to the Employee possessing the skills and ability to perform the job function.

The Employer will audit the position and notify the Employee of the results within thirty (30) working days from the date the request for reclassification was received. The position will be reclassified if the majority of the duties being performed on an ongoing basis are of a higher level than those of the existing classification.
- 23.3.2 If a reclassification is not granted by the Employer, the matter may be resolved by using the grievance procedure.
- 23.3.3 If the position is reclassified as a result of the review, the position will be posted in the following manner:

23.3.3.1 If the present incumbent possesses minimum qualifications for the position, the notice of posting will indicate that the position has been reclassified and that the present incumbent shall fill it. A more senior Employee may contest such a posting by submitting an application in accordance with Article 11 of the Collective Agreement within ten (10) days from date of posting, selection to be made in accordance with Article 11.

23.3.3.2 If the present incumbent does not have the minimum qualifications for the position, then posting shall be in accordance with Article 11.

25.2.1 The Employer shall notify an Employee in writing of any expression of dissatisfaction concerning his/her work within ten (10) working days of the event of the complaint, with copies to the Union. This notice shall include particulars of the work performance which led to such dissatisfaction. If this procedure is not followed, such expression of dissatisfaction shall not become part of his/her record for use against him/her in regard to discharge, discipline, promotion, demotion, or any other related matters. This Article shall be applicable to any complaint or accusation which may be detrimental to an Employee's advancement or standing with the Employer, whether or not it relates to his/her work. The Employee's reply to such complaint, accusation or expression of dissatisfaction shall become part of his/her record.

25.2.2 The record of an Employee shall not be used against him/her at any time after twelve (12) months following a disciplinary action, including letters of reprimand or any adverse reports.

25.2.3 In cases involving gross misconduct justifying suspension or discharge, the provisions of Clause 25.2.2 of this Article, shall not apply.

25.2.4 Failure to grieve previous discipline, or to pursue such a grievance to arbitration, shall not be considered an admission that such discipline was justified.

25.3.2 No evidence from the Employee's record may be introduced as evidence in any hearing of which the Employee was not aware at the time of filing.

25.3.3 An Employee shall have the right to make copies of any material contained in his/her personnel record.

25.6 Present Conditions and Privileges. The Employer agrees that existing privileges not covered by this Agreement, and which do not conflict with the terms or principles of the Agreement, will not be withdrawn or altered during the term of this Agreement without good cause. The Employer will negotiate with the Union prior to any contemplated change.

25.7 Continuation of Acquired Rights. All provisions of this Agreement are subject to applicable laws now or hereafter in effect. If any law now existing or hereafter enacted, or proclamation or regulation shall invalidate or disallow any portion of this Agreement, the entire Agreement shall not be invalidated and the existing rights, privileges and obligations of the parties shall remain in existence.

25.8 Outside Employment. The Employer shall be notified of any outside employment by the Employee, verbally or in writing, prior to the start of such employment or as soon as reasonably possible.

25.9 Office Closure. When an MLA resigns, passes away or is defeated in an election or by-election the Constituency Assistant shall be allowed up to seven (7) working days with pay in order to close the office.

ARTICLE 26 – HARASSMENT

26.1 The Union and the Employer recognize the importance of maintaining a work environment that is free of harassment and will work jointly to achieve that goal.

26.2 Harassment is defined as any unwelcome or unwanted action by any person against another. “Unwelcome” or “unwanted” in this context means any actions which the harasser knows, or reasonably should know, are not desired by the victim of the harassment.

26.3 Harassment may take various forms. Sexual harassment, racial harassment and personal harassment are the most common. Harassment can be perpetrated by the display of material of any offensive nature on a single or repeated basis which humiliates, degrades, insults, threatens or intimidates. Harassment may involve a series of incidents over a period of time. Harassment is not:

26.3.1 bona fide work-related interaction such as work assignment, performance feedback, counselling or disciplinary action, or

26.3.2 normal social contact between people based upon a position of equality or mutual consent.

26.4 Harassment is grounds for discipline. The nature of the disciplinary action will depend on the gravity of the misconduct and any mitigating circumstances.

26.5 In the case of an alleged harassment, the individual being harassed has the right to:

26.5.1 a joint investigation involving the Employer and the Union upon request.

26.5.2 discontinued contact with the alleged harasser during the investigation.

26.6 An Employee who believes he/she has been the subject of harassment has a responsibility to make an objection clearly known to the alleged offender. Complaints of harassment that cannot be resolved by the parties directly involved, can be dealt with in the following manner:

26.6.1 The Employee(s) can refer the complaint directly to the Employer and/or the Union Representative.

26.6.2 All complaints shall be supplied concurrently to the Employer and the Union and will be handled as quickly as possible.

26.6.3 The Employee may take such steps as are necessary to immediately resolve outside harassment without disciplinary action.

25.7 Complaints will be handled in accordance with a mutually-agreed upon complaint mechanism.

25.8 Nothing in this Article shall limit the Employee’s right to access the grievance procedure.

- 28.2 When an Employee is injured in the performance of his/her duties during working hours, he/she must report such injury to the Employer immediately or as soon as it is possible to do so.

ARTICLE 29 – EMPLOYEE AND FAMILY ASSISTANCE PLAN

- 29.1 Employee and Family Assistance Plan. All Employees and their family members shall be covered by an Employer-paid Employee and Family Assistance Plan which provides counselling on a strictly confidential basis for psychological, marital, financial, harassment, parent-child, family background, alcohol and drug misuse problems and for legal referrals.
- 29.2 The Employee shall be allowed access to their sick leave credits during such time that they are required to be off work and on Employee and Family Assistance Plan.

- 30.4 Commencement. Such notice having been given, negotiations shall commence as soon as possible, but in any event not later than two (2) weeks prior to the expiry date of the Agreement.
- 30.5 Provisions to Apply. Where notice to amend the Agreement is given, the provisions of this Agreement shall continue in force until a new Agreement is signed or the right to strike accrues, whichever occurs first. If negotiations extend beyond the termination of the Agreement, any revision in terms mutually-agreed upon shall apply retroactively to that date, unless otherwise specified.

30.6 At the first meeting the Union shall submit its written proposals to the Employer and the Employer shall then immediately submit its written proposals to the Union. No further proposals may be entertained except by mutual agreement.
